

Copyright is retained by the first or sole author, who grants right of first publication to the IARTEM e-Journal. The IARTEM e-Journal is published by the International Association for Research on Textbooks and Educational Media.

Adapting Other Countries Instructional Materials For Teacher Training In Madagascar

Citation: Raholiarisoa, H. (2009) Adapting Other Countries Instructional Materials For Teacher Training In Madagascar IARTEM e-Journal, 2(1)

Abstract

This paper briefly explores the problematics of using teaching and learning resources developed in other countries for education and teacher education in Madagascar. The paper initially overviews educational development and reform in Madagascar. It then explores different ways of adapting overseas developed resources for teaching and teacher education in the Madagascar context. Finally the paper provides suggestions for future practice.

Key words: teacher education, education reform, teaching and learning resources, adaptation, Madagascar